Published by Authority.

From Tuesday October 31. to Saturday November 4. 1738.

Vienna, November 1, N. S.

THE Letters of the 24th past N. S. from the Army, are dated from the Camp near Panchova, from whence it was thought they would remove as on the 26th or 27th towards Opova, and stay there eight Days for the Sake of consuming the Forage in that Neighbourhood. In the mean while, the Fortifications of Panchova were demolishing; and Vipalanka, which Colonel Berenclau found demolished, is to remain so. Letters of the 22d past, N. S. from Transilvania, mention a new Alarm on the Side of Porta Ferrea, towards which Place 500 Horse and a Regiment of Hussars had been sent from the Camp upon the Maros, who were to be supported by all the Forces under Prince Lobkowitz. The Prince of Bevern, Nephew to the Empress, and Prince Charles of Lorrain, have both left the Army, but have been refused any Indulgence with respect to the Quarantine; so that they will hardly be here before Christmas. The Bavarians and the Saxons have the Permission to retire immediately into Winter Quarters, without being confined to garrisoned Towns; this is not only agreeable to their respective Conventions, but the particular Reason which is given for it, is, that unharrass'd and unfatig'd as they are, and will be during the Winter, they may be the first to take the Field the next Year. We have had a Report ever since the last Post, of the Arrival of a Turk of Consideration at Belgrade, with Letters for the Duke of Lorrain, Felt Marshal Konigsfegg, and Felt Marshal Wallis. He came, it is said, with a Guard of 30 Spahis, and a Tent and other things proper for his Reception were said to have been immediately prepared for him.

Whitehall, November 3, 1738.

Whereas two Letters, dated the 14th of August, and 16th of October last past, have been received by Mr. Casar Chandler, at Downhampney in Gloucestershire, threatening his Life, and the burning down his Farm House, if he did not lay One Hundred Pounds at certain Places, and at the Times therein mentioned; His Majesty, for the discovering and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in so heinous a Crime, is pleased to promise his most gracious Pardon to any one concerned in Writing and sending the said threatening Letters, who shall discover his Accomplice or Accomplices, so as they, or any one of them, be apprehended and convicted thereof.

HARRINGTON.

And at a farther Encouragement to such Discovery, Sir John Hynde Cotton, Baronet, and Robert Nugent, Esq; living in Dover Street, Westminster, do hereby promise a Reward of One Hundred Pounds to any Person or Persons making the said Discovery; to be paid upon the Conviction of the Offender or Offenders.

Ro. Nugent,

for self and Sir John Hynde Cotton.

General Post Office, London, August 27, 1738.

Whereas the Post-Boy carrying the North Mail from London, was set upon and robbed by a single Person on Foot, this Morning between the Hours of Two and Three, on this Side Kingland, near London: The Postmaster General thinks proper to make it publicly known, That whoever shall apprehend the Person who committed this Robbery, will, upon Conviction, be entitled to a Reward of Two Hundred Pounds, besides the Reward by Act of Parliament for apprehending of Highwaymen: Or if any Accomplice in the said Robbery, shall make a Discovery of the Person who committed the Fact, such Accomplice will be entitled to the said Reward of Two Hundred Pounds, and also have his Majesty's most gracious Pardon. By Order of the Post Master General, John Jesse, Clerk.

The Person who committed this Robbery, is described to be a middle-sized Man, had on a light-colour'd close bodied Coat, with close Sleeves, and a full Bob Wig pretty light, with a Paper Mask over his Face. He carried off the five following Bags, viz. Hartford, Peterborough, Horncastle, Louth, and Boston; and likewise took the greatest Part of the Letters out of the Liffeld, Ware, St. Ives, and Royston Bags.

Note, There were two Men at a small Distance from him, suppos'd to be his Accomplices.

General Post-Office, Nov. 1, 1738.

Whereas a Bank Bill, D. No. 3848, dated the 12th of September, 1738, for the Sum of 23 l. 10 s. 2 d. payable to Anna Stalker, or Order, three Days after Sight, was stolen out of the Bristol Mail upon the 13th of September last, and was brought to the Warehouse of Mess. Bigot and Godin, on Monday the 30th of last Month, by one who pretended his Name was George Willis, and bought of the said Bigot and Godin, by their Servant David Delavau, Nineteen Yards of white Paduasoy, at the Price of 9 s. 6 d. per Yard, which came to 9 l. 11 s. 6 d. which he paid to the said Delavau by delivering to him the Bank Bill aforesaid, receiving the Overplus of 23 l. 10 s. 2 d. after the Deduction of the 9 l. 11 s. 6 d. The said George Willis is described to be a Man between the Age of 20 and 30, of a middle Size, and had on a Drab colour Coat and a Bob Wig, and said he lived at a Merchant's near Tower Hill, that dealt in Spicery, which, upon Enquiry, appears to be false.

The Post-Master-General therefore thinks it proper, upon this Occasion, to publish this Advertisement concerning the said George Willis, describ'd as above, looking upon him as a Person who either robb'd the Bristol Mail himself, or was concern'd as an Accomplice in the Robbery; and that what has been already publish'd may be again made known, that upon the Conviction of the Principal or Principals in the Robbery, such Principal or Principals being convicted thereof, the Person who shall make the Discovery of him or them, will be entitled to the Reward of 200 l. for each of them, who shall be so convicted as Principals or Accessories, besides the Rewards provided by Act of Parliament for apprehending of Highwaymen. And any Accomplice or Accomplices in the said Robbery, who shall make a Discovery as aforesaid of the Person or Persons who have committed the said Robbery, will be entitled to the Rewards aforesaid, and further, have the Benefit of his Majesty's most gracious Pardon.
